TO THE ST. LOUIS GLOBE-DEM-OCRAT.

Don't Forget the Texas of To-Day While Writing Up Old Texas.

To the Globe-Democrat of St. Louis. you request your correspondent. Mr. "W. B. S.," who is just now "doing" Texas and making a specialty of "crimes in Texas" in the past, not to overlook the fact lina at least 95 per cent of the crimes committed in our state should be credited to men who came here from the old states and not to came here from the old states and not to native Texans, as is generally supposed by those who don't know Texas and her people. Many—yes, thousands of your readers in the old states look upon native Texans as men who subsist on mean whisky, kill their fellow man for pastime and war "horns," They have not this impression from reading They have got this impressing from reading They have got this impressing from reading many of the Northern papers for years past, and it never occurred to them that the men who raised "hades" if Texas years ago wer right from their own states.

Again dear Globe, let the request that readers and the inform your, public in well as of eral of the Texas of to-day as "old-time Texas." This done accomplished a great and you will ha d will be entitled good work f over your aire state few—to us—important points.

The letters of your "W. B. S." on Texas will attract a great deal of interest and do a "world" of good for our state, providing, of course, the Texas of to-day is proping, of course, the Texas of to-day is properly placed before your many readers, which I believe and hope it will be. Very truly yours, truly yours, JOHN HOWARD, Of and for Texas.

N. B.—You can, if you will, also inform your readers that some "Yankees" of Dublin. Texas, are going to have a public land sale at Dublin during the reunion of the old soldiers, and have arranged to give 3 per cent of the entire sale to the ex-Confederate association, also some property, which will be sold at auction by an old rebel general and an ex-Union general, the proceeds of which, with the 3 per cent of the gross sales, will be used for some charitable purpose or placed to the fund now being raised for the erection of a Confederate monument. That's how we "Yanks" and "Rebs" are fighting down here. Yours, J. H.

Futures—Liverpool opened easy this morning at 2-64 decline. Spots were marked down 1-64, and it was generally expected that prices on this side would decline 8 or 10 points. Operators, however, were not prepared for the collapse which occurred in New York, and which our market shared to a less extent. It was at first supposed here from the heavy decline in New York that some important failure had occurred there, but the cause of the collapse is simply what we have of the collapse is simply what we have several times predicted, viz: The absence of any buying demand since the late heavy liquidation of shorts.

Bulls who were forced to unload on ac-count of the exhaustion of the margin could find no buyers to relieve them, and as a necessary result the market fell away sevnecessary result the market fell away several points at a time there. After a decline of 17 points there was a sharp rally, and our closing is about 12 points decline on the day, which all admit, however, is so far above a parity with New York and Liverpool that unless those markets come up it will be impossible to maintain our advance. be impossible to maintain our advance. Spots here were marked down 1-16 to 1/2c. with sales of 1000.

The Stock Market.
